

Market Update RNTS Media N.V. August 19thst, 2013

Today RNTS Media proudly announces that it has agreed on the key terms to acquire 100% of the shares of Big Star Global, a company based in Seoul, Korea.

“The strategic match between our two companies is tremendous and promises a bright future for both entities” says Mr. Roger van Diepen, President of the Management Board of RNTS Media N.V..

“We are excited to get access to a wealth of worldwide marketing channels and -contacts through the RNTS Media Group which will allow us to roll out a Korean developed product on a global scale” says Mr. Hyoung Hoon Han, founder and CEO of Big Star Global.

Big Star Global has a tremendous portfolio of digital edutainment content and has a team of more than 125 creative e-book and animation specialists, unique software tools and a fully equipped sound studio. Big Star Global will focus on developing new and fully localized content where RNTS Media will bring this content to its existing and new customers across the globe.

Big Star Global has over 1.500 App books available in English and Korean language.

RNTS’s marketing and publishing channels will enable Big Star Global to execute its long term and fully committed strategy of the global roll out of its large edutainment portfolio. This portfolio will become the largest driver for growth for the RNTS group of businesses.

Through a partnership with LG Electronics, BSG is providing its digital edutainment content exclusively as the Master Content Provider for its educational tablet which is to be marketed internationally.

Other hardware manufacturers are also showing high interest in using BSG - RNTS edutainment content and RNTS is in negotiations with numerous government organisations in South East Asia and the Middle East in regard to the supply of RNTS digital edutainment content for digital learning projects.

On a separate note we have been informed that our auditor, Ernst & Young, due to delays in the process and workload will not be able to complete the full audit of the RNTS 2012 accounts before the end of August. Because of the rules related to the listing of our shares at the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, this means that official trading of our shares have been suspended from the 1st of August until the submission of our audited accounts. We sincerely apologise for any inconvenience this may cause and we will inform you as soon as the suspension has been lifted.
