RNTS MEDIA N.V.

Fyber Co-Founder Janis Zech will resign from RNTS Management Board

RNTS Media N.V. (“RNTS” or “Company”) reports that Janis Zech, Co-Founder and Managing Director of Fyber GmbH (“Fyber”) and RNTS Management Board Member, today informed the Company that he will leave Fyber with effect as of 31 March 2017, according to contract. After more than seven years at Fyber, Mr. Zech is planning to take up new challenges in founding and investing in start-ups.

Mr. Zech’s tasks will be taken up by the Fyber management team Mr. Zech installed over the last two years, including senior executives who joined Fyber through acquisitions.

In order to fully focus on the transition process and handover of tasks within Fyber, Mr. Zech will step down from his position as RNTS Management Board Member with effect as of 1 January 2017. His tasks at RNTS will be jointly assumed by Andreas Bodczek and Ziv Elul.
